

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

TUESDAY
August 1, 1916

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

YIELDING TO THAT HOT-WEATHER IMPULSE
Who, when the humidity is trying to get past the 90 mark, has not felt the temptation to which these youngsters are giving free rein?

CHILDREN FROM THE TENEMENTS OFF FOR FRESH-AIR
This is the flock that went to Hatfield, Pa., yesterday in care of the Volunteers of America, who send a new batch out each week.

IN GRAY AND BLACK
These new guards have been installed in Independence and Washington Square parks, relieving regular policemen from duty there.

NOT SUCH A BAD SITUATION AT THIS TIME OF YEAR
Austrian Alpine troops making their way over the snow-capped peaks which form an everlasting barrier between their country and Italy.
Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

$250,000 YACHT OWNED BY "LUCKY" BALDWIN'S DAUGHTER
The California is the largest pleasure craft that ever visited Atlantic City, where, after a voyage of mishaps from the Pacific, she celebrated her arrival by grounding on the bar. Her owner is Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker.

MERCY TO THE ENEMY
Photo by International Film Service.
British Tommies mitigate the threat in their long bayonets by giving a wounded prisoner a long pull at the water bottle.

PUPILS OF KELLEY SCHOOL GIVE A PLAY IN THE OPEN AIR
They built a stage almost on the street curb at Twenty-eighth street and Columbia avenue, where they gave a performance in costumes designed by themselves.